

DrupalCamp Baltics 2018 Sponsorship Packages

Dear Sponsor

Did you know that Drupal community is one of the largest open source communities in the world? There are more than one million passionate developers, designers, mentors, strategists, coordinators, editors, sponsors and so on - all working together to make a world a better place.

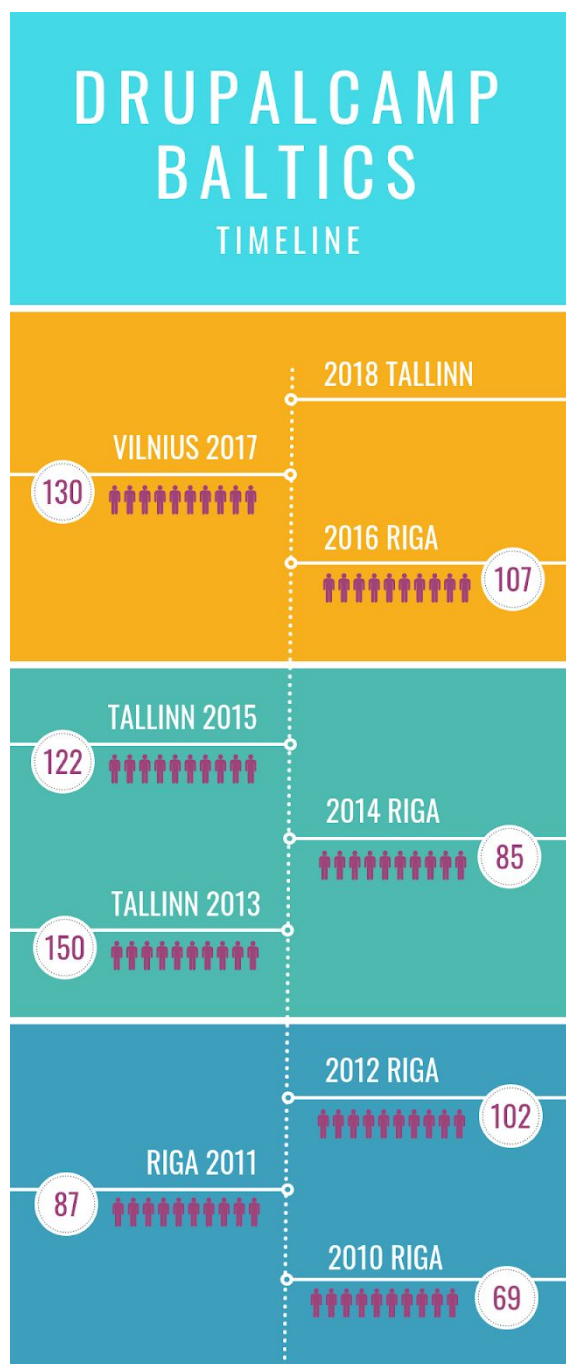

Without any further ado we are glad to announce that the 9th DrupalCamp Baltics will take place on November the 2nd at Kultuurikatel, Põhja puiestee 27a, Tallinn. DrupalCamp Baltics is an annual Drupal community event for people in the Baltics and beyond. It is a non-commercial event with sessions and workshops where people can share, learn and take the best possible outcome from teamwork. Each year the community has grown and the event has gathered together various number of guest speakers and over 100 participants such as web professionals, developers, business people, marketers and other interested parties.

We hereby invite you to support us succeed through becoming one of the conference sponsors. As a sponsor of this event you do not only help to spread the word, knowledge and passion of Drupal, you also have a great opportunity to promote your own company to one of the fastest growing open source software communities through various ways that we offer in sponsorship packages. Full sponsor benefit package options can be found at the end of this document.

Thank you for your time to consider sponsoring the DrupalCamp Baltics 2018. We sincerely look forward to see you there!

Why should you sponsor DrupalCamp Baltics 2018?

By sponsoring DrupalCamp Baltics you support the Drupal community's continued growth. DrupalCamp Baltics is a great opportunity to get your message before a targeted audience - web professionals, developers, business people and marketers in the Drupal world.

Your generous support helps us:

- to keep the ticket prices low
- to offer cheaper tickets for students
- to cover venue costs
- to cover meal and coffee break costs
- to cover accommodation costs
- to promote the event

Please note that DrupalCamp is a non-commercial event and sponsorship is vital for our success.

We put a lot of time and effort to make DrupalCamp Baltics happen every year, so if you share our passion on open source technology and are interested in contributing for DrupalCamp Baltics 2018, you are welcome to choose one of sponsorship packages below.

If you have been a sponsor already and have returned then we are beyond thankful and honoured to work with you and continue our successful collaboration!
